ABOUT THE WORLD IN ONE CITY:

Founded and co-created in 2021 by Imad Ali, a passionate football fan born in Liverpool and proud member of the Yemeni community throughout the city, The World in One City is an annual event organised and led by a team of local volunteers who have been actively involved in community football for many years. The World in One City gives a unique platform to multi-ethnic communities and individuals from across the Liverpool City Region to proudly showcase their heritage, culture, and diversity. The World in One City also forms part of an all-year-round initiative called 'The Establishment', which organises weekly football activities for hundreds of local amateur footballers who come together throughout the year through a shared love of sport and to build long-lasting friendships.

The World in One City is an officially registered Community Interest Company (CIC) - company number: 13687805.
